

EGAN SAFETY SOLUTIONS

14 Lee Park, Sitecast Industrial Estate, Pouladuff, Cork. Tel:021-4966560 Fax:021-4966576

Course Title	Health and Safety Training for Managers
Maximum Number of Participants:	12
Duration:	Half day
Certification

Course details

This course is designed to provide those with responsibility for managing Health and Safety within companies with the information and skills which are needed for them to carry out this role efficiently. The course will provide participants with an overview of all applicable legislation and the obligations that this places upon companies. Pertinent areas which are covered include Legislation, Risk Assessments, Safety Management Systems, Accident Investigation, and reactive and proactive Safety Management Techniques.

Objectives

On completion of the course participants will be able to:

- State the imperatives for a proactive approach to health and safety,
- Describe the legal framework for Health and Safety,
- Explain the components of a Health and Safety Management System and their interrelationship,
- Identify initiatives to promote Health & Safety in the workplace,
- Describe the role of risk management in Safety Management and accident prevention,
- Outline and apply the key components of a safe system of work,
- State the reasons for undertaking active and reactive monitoring,
- Describe the components of effective accident investigation,
- Identify and discuss current issues in health and safety in their organisation,

Programme

- The role of the manager in Health and Safety,
- Legislation,
- Hazard identification,
- The Safety Statement,
- Accident recording and investigation,
- Safe system of work,
- Communicating the health and safety message,
- Information, instruction and supervision,
- Communication and consultation in the workplace,
- Health and safety audit systems,
- Management of change within companies,

For further information on this course or booking information please don't hesitate to contact us using our booking form.